MURDER AT HALFMOON BAY

Mysterious Assassination of Tiburcio Vasques---Malcontents Cause Trouble for School.

[Record of some interesting events of 1863.]

On the 1st of April, 1863, Tony Oakes, who for a number of years had conducted the San Mateo House, at San Mateo, and had acquired for the hotel a considerable reputation as a fashionable resort, sold out the place to Edward Taylor, of San Francisco. This deprived the county of one of its most popular Summer resorts, as Mr. Taylor had no intention of engaging in the hotel business, but prepared to remodel the place for a private residence. Mr. Oakes announced his intention to quit the hotel business when he sold the San Mateo House, but he soon found that the life held too much attraction for him and within two weeks he had leased and opened the Chrystal Springs House situated in one of the most romantic spots of the county.

Evidently all was not harmony in the community at this time and as a consequence the public school in this town was laboring under the handicap of a factional opposition to the teacher. That she had the full support of the Trustees, however, is shown by a paragraph in their annual report in which they said: "We desire to testify to the faithfulness and competency of our teacher, Mrs. E. Wright, in spite of the unwarranted opposition towards her by a few meddelsome individuals in this community. We will say this of her, that we have ever found her a faithful and competent instructor of youth, and to our successors would say that as the school is now constituted we know of no more competent person to fill her place." The report shows that the school had been kept open regularly during the entire year, with the exception of the usual vacations, with an average attendance of 26 pupils. During the year the trustees had paid out for repairs and supplies $56 25, and had paid on the salary of the teacher $242.88, leaving a balance due her of $257.12. There was still sufficient money in the school funds to pay the balance due the teacher and still leave on hand about $150.00. At this time the lot upcn which the school house stood was included in the right-of-way required by the San Francisco and San Jose Railroad, and no agreement could be reached as to the sale of the property, although negotiations had been under way for some time. The building was sadly in need of repairs but these the trustees did not consider it advisable to make, as it was deemed best to husband the resources until this question was settled.

On the night of April 15th, 1863, there occurred at Halfmoan Bay an unusually cold blooded and apparently coolly premeditated murder, especially notable for lack of apparent motive. The victim was Tiburcio Vasques—no relative of the celebrated bandit of that name, but said to have been one of the best known and most respected of the native Californian residents of the county. At the time of the murder, Vasques was seated in a saloon in the town, with his back to a window, and was killed by a gunshot fired through the window from without. The murdered man had been seated in this position but a few minutes before the fatal shot was fired, and it was suspected that he had been induced to take this position by an accomplice of the assassin. A very short time before this three men had been noticed standing together in a shop opposite the saloon, and one of these had been heard to remark that Vasques would be killed before morning. The man who made this remark entered the saloon and bantered Vasques to play a game of cards. Vasques accepted the banter, and was induced to take the seat before the window. The game had hardly been commenced when the shot was fired from without, killing him almost instantly. Deputy Sheriff Keith happened to be in town at the time and as soon as he learned of the occurrence commenced an investigation. The night was unusually dark and stormy, and with the general excitement the officer found considerable difficulty in obtaining a clear statement of the facts. Finally securing connected information of the occurrences, began his hunt for the three men who had been seen together in the shop. Within a short time he had found the man who had been playing cards with Vasques at the time the shot was fired, and he was placed under arrest on suspicion of being a party to the murder, but at a preliminary examination held at Halfmoon Bay a few days later it was found that there was no evidence to connect him with the crime and he was discharged. The assistance of a detective from San Jose was secured and every effort made to unravel the mystery of the motive of the murder and locate its perpetrators, but without success. A reward of $250 was offered by Sheriff Bowman for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderers, but this produced no better results.

The idea of a Board of Supervisors for the county consisting of seven members did not prove a popular one, and at the special session of the Legislature held in the early portion of this year, a special Act was introduced and passed reducing the number to five. This law provided that the Board of Supervisors chosen at the next general election should consist of five members, one to

HOSE DEALERS BEFORE COUNCIL

Many Bidders on Fire Department Supplies, But Little Cut in Prices.

MARSHAL GRANTED VACATION

More Water for Streets in Wellesley Park---Council Still Seeking Garbage Solution.

A considerable portion of the time of the session of the Council Monday evening—at which all of the Trustees were in attendance—was take up with a discussion of fire hose, of which 400 feet is to be purchased. Although the amount was small, there were no less than nine bids, several of which were from local representatives of general agencies. As all of the bidders submitted samples, and a majority had representatives present to urge their claims the Trustees were treated to some instructive and entertaining lectures on the processes of hose manufacture. No settlement of the purchase was reached, however, as Cairman Rice of the fire department committe desired time for an investigation of the quality of the samples and on his motion the matter was referred to that committee and fire chief Winters to report at the next meeting.

Taking advantage of a technicality, the representative of the Gorham Rubber Company secured the sale of a fire nozzle at a slightly higher figure than that offered by some of his competitors. While the call for bids required that bidders should submit sample, this had generally been construed to refer to hose only, and his firm was the only one to present a sample nozzle. Taking advantage of this fact he made the claim that theirs was the only legal bid. As City Attorney Mansfield admitted the force of the argument, on motion of Trustee Hynding the bid was accepted and the sample purchased.

The bids submitted were as follows:

R. C. Holmquist, representing the Goodyear Rubber Company.—Two grades of hose at $1 and 80 centsper foot. Nozzle $7.80.

Revere Rubber Company—Two grades at 80c and 70c. Nozzle, $4.50.

Squires, Byrne Co.—Two grades at 70c and 60c. Nozzle $6.

Pacific Coast Rubber Co.—One grade at 65c. Nozzle, $4.75.

Hall Bros. representing Bowers Rubber Company—Three grades at 80c 75c and 60c. Nozzle, $5.50.

W. H. Hooper, representing the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber Co. —One grade at 62½ cents.

Wm. Jamieson, representing the Gorham Rubber Co.—Two grades at 80c and 65c. Nozzle $6 50.

W. O. Dodge, representing the Western Belting Co.—Two brands at 80c and 70c. Nozzle $5.50.

Charles G. Landscheit, as a representative of the Wellesley Park property, appeared before the Council and asked for a reduction in a bill which had been preseted for water used in the improvement of streets in that section. The charges in the bill had been made at the rate of 30 cents per 1000 gallons, and as it was shown that in the past water for similar uses had been furnished at a rate of 15 cents it was decided to make a similar reduction in this case. The reduction amounts to a little more than $35. Mr. Landscheit also stated that the owners of the property were desirous that the streets should be more thoroughly sprinkled during the Summer and that they were willing to bear a portion of the added expense. On motion of Hynding it was decied that the city would furnish the water, provided the owners of the property bore the expense of its distribution. This was accepted by Mr. Landscheit.

Although it had been hoped that the garbage question would be finally disposed of at this meeting the Council was again compelled to lay the matter over for want of an offer for the disposal of the garbage. It is hoped that some acceptable proposition will be made at the next meeting.

Street Superintendent Dickey presented specifications for partial oiling of a number of streets. Trustee Hynding objected to the plan of oiling only the sides of streets, and suggested that the best season for the doing of this class of work had passed. This brought forth a general discussion of the condition of the streets, during which it was stated that a number of streets were in a condition which made it imperatively necessary that they should be temporarily repaired in order to make them passable during the coming Winter. In view of these conditions consideration of the specifications was deferred and the Street Superintendent was instructed to make a careful investigation and submit a report of all streets in need of repairs at the next meeting.

About 125 girls under the chaporn age of the nuns known as the Helpers of San Francisco were given an outing by Mrs. J. T. Doyle and other patronesses at Mrs. Doyle's residence last Sunday. The girls arrived early in a special train and on their way to the Doyle home many of them stopped at the Church of the Nativity and sang in the choir. The nuns have organized a club of working girls and one of the objects of the organization is to give the young ladies an outing in the country two or three times a year. The party had a delightful time on the green lawns and orchards of their hostess. They were shown many points of interest and departed with a good impression of Menlo Park. Mr. Doyle and her daughter, Mariie, spared no pains or expense in entertaining their guests.

Mrs. James Logan Sr., entertained 22 ladies at a card party at her fine home in Linda Vista Park last Thursday. Many from the metropolis were present as well as from Palo Alto. Revival of Old Custom.

There was a custom in vogue in which the members of the human race, especially young males and females congregated in a hall where an orchestra was in attendance, and the young man would hold the young lady's hand or put his arm around her waist and the two would move their feet together and go around the hall, trying to keep out of other couples way. This funny custom was called "Dancing"

High School Announcement.

Sequoia Union high school will open for its fifteenth year on Aug. 9, 1909. In the fourteen years that have passed since the school opened its first session under David A. Curry on September 16, 1895 in the grammar school building 140 students have received diplomas of graduation. Its graduates may already be found in many of the professions, and not a few have already attained prominence in their chosen callings.

The faculty for the coming year will be as follows:—

Samuel P McCrea—Principal, history, civics and economics.

Edith A. Anthony—Science and mathematics.

Ethel Swain—English and algebra.

Katherine Wolfenden—Latin, German and Ancient history.

B. E. Meyers—Commercial branches

O. M. Carrington—Music and drawing.

Last year the school enrolled 86 pupils, held 80 till the close and graduated 17. The teachers are proud of this record, and hope to do as well the coming year. The greater part of last years class will enter the universities and Normal schools to fit themselves for more useful careers.

While the expense of keping up a well equipped and efficient high school is considerable, no money spent by the community brings better returns. Sequoia Union high school has long since justified the wisdom of the little group of men who were responsible for bringing it into existence. It has long since won a name for earnest and efficient work. It cannot afford to cheapen its reputation by any methods which do not seem likely to be of permanent value. Earnest and faithful work is the only sure ground of success.

Few people stop to consider the extent of the field covered by the instruction of the better class of California High Schools. In the last four years but little new work has been attempted There has been an honest effort to do more and better commercial work, the music work has been systematized and improved, and both freehand and geometrical drawing have been added to the courses. At present we make provision for history civics, and economics—5 years; science, physical geography, chemistry and physics—3 years; mathematics—algebra and plane geometry 3 years; English literature and composition 4 years; Latin 4 years; German 2 years; Drawing 3 years; commercial work—arithmetic, bookkeeping stenography, typewriting, commercial law 4 years; and vocal music 4 years with one lesson each week. Thirty years ago less work was attempted by most of the small colleges; and few of them with from 100 to 150 students had so much money to spend as is yearly laid out for the expenses of our own high school.

It is not more and better facilities that are needed by pupils today, but it is a stronger desire to get an education and the best possible education in four years. Too many are satisfied to barely get through in most subjects. Such a policy would mean failure in business life It would mean a "botch" workman if so little energy and ambition were put into mastering a trade. Unless a pupil means to work High School is not apt to prove a pleasant place, Happily this school has its share of superior students. In last year's class one student received 19 credits on entering Stanford when 15 are required for entrance; and more of those credits were above 90 than below. The greater number of students with such records that we can send to higher institutions the better for all parties concerned.

It will be easier to get well started if on hand the first day; and prompt and regular attendance there after will greatly help in insuring good results. S. P. McCrea, principal.

Electric Railway Merger.

A mtter which promises action of much importance to this city and vicinity in the very near future, was the filing last Tuesday in the office of the County Clerk of the articles of incorporation and consolidation of the Peninsula Railway Company. Under the articles of incorporation, the consolidated company will have a capital stock of $12,000,000, divided into 120 000 shares. These shares will be divided as among the consolidating corporations as follows: Peninsular stockholders 50,000; San Jose-Los Gatos stockholders, 20,000 shares; Santa Clara stockholders, 50,000 shares. That the Southern Pacific interests continue to dominate in the consolidated corporation is shown by the presence on the Board of Directors of the following gentlemen prominently connected with the Harriman interests: J. T. Burke, Paul Shoup, C. B Seger, P. T. Dunne and F. E. Chapin

The consolidated corporation takes up the Peninsular Railway Company, the San Jose-Los Gatos Interurban Railway Company, and the Santa Clara Railway Company. Under the consolidation articles the company is empowered to develop and sell electric power and light in addition to operating railroad systems. This action gives good ground for the generally prevailing impression that work on the extension of the present electric line from San Mateo to complete the connection to San Jose is to be pushed forward in the very near future.

Terry McKean's Return.

The theater goers of Redwood City are looking forward to the re-appearance of Terry McKean's Players at the Alhambra theater for three nights ocmmencing next Monday, August 9th. This is without question the biggest and most successful dramatic organization playing highclass repertoire in the West. Since playing in Redwood last April the Players have appeared throughout the West and return here stronger and better than they were. An entire new repertoire of plays will be presented during the coming engagement. On Monday evening the stirring drama of the West "A Daughter of the Ranch" will be the bill; Tuesday the prettiest and jolliest comedy ever seen here, "Kitty's Honeymoon' and Wednesday evening the thrilling play "The Tiger's Den'. Popular prices ranging from 25 cents to 50 cents will be in vogue.

Following is what the Modesto Herald of July 8th had to say ofthe Players:

The impression made in Modesto by McKean's performers, is well expressed in the Daily News of that city thusly:

"It is with sincere regret that Modestans witness the departure from our city of Manager Terry McKean and his jolly company. They have made friends on every hand during their brief stay within our gates, and have not only demonstrated their ability as high-class entertainers and actors of merit, but what counts infinitely more, they have proven themselves ladies and gentlemen, whom it has been a pleasure to meet and know, and count as friends. It is expected that a large crowd will turn out tonight and bid them farewel."

A Genuine Outing.

Long before the restoration of the Constitution in 1782, the term Picnic was used. The word then bore a different meaning to what it does now. Then it did not convey to the understanding a gala day of sports, of recreation, renewal of friendship and thorough sociability, nor yet the re union of separated families and friends. Even today the term is often misused, it is made to represent anything from a run round a corner to a five hour ride in a stuffy car, or rickety boat. To throughly realize the genuine meaning of "Picnic" and bring home to the workshop of the intelect the many and correct phases which it naturally assumes, you must be at Tanforan Park on Labor Day. Perhaps like others you may think that because you saw one picnic you have seen them all—they are so much alike—you will think otherwise after September 6th if you are one of the ten thousand who will visit Tanforan Park and enjoy an outing unparalleled in your life's history.

Bell, San Gregorio; Henry Levy, (class B), Half Moon Bay.

A discussion was had as to what disposition should be made of the applications of the Menlo Park liquor dealers for licenses, after which it was agreed to issue the licenses and should it be shown later that the law prohibiting the sale of liquor in that town is effective to then revoke the licenses and rebate back to the license holders the balance due them. By this course the county would be getting a portion of the year's license.

McEvoy was authorized to employ the surveyor to prepare plans for a concrete bridge across the Coon creek in the Third township.

On motion of Coleman the surveyor was directed to make measurements of portions of the county road to enable the officers to ascertain the speed of automobilists and enforce the law.

A communication was read from Surveyor Neuman stating that the telephoned poles in the Mission Road were in proper place and next to the curb that had been set for a six foot walk

The surveyor reported having examined the bridges over the Knoff and Apanilio creeks in the Fourth township and recommended that the concrete wing walls be extended. He estimated the cost at $110 to each bridge.

The matter of changing the roadway at Long bridge in the Fourth township was referred to the surveyor for a report.

James C. Nealon, of the O'Brien Construction Company informed the board that if the contract was given to Waterhouse and Price Co. to install fire-proof doors and windows in the courthouse his company would make the following reductions: Painting $400; labor $1400; new material $700; making a total of $2500.

Donald MacKenzie, the superintendent of the building, considered the reductions reasonable.

Glenn Allen, the architect, said that he had figured with the contractors and believed the offer to be a liberal one. He would give his written consent to the changes.

The O'Brien Construction Company were given permission to change the metal lathing from Clinton to Herring bone. This will make a saving of $162.50 to the county..

McEvoy called attention to the controvrsey between the Direct Line Telephone Co. and the Pacific States Co., over the installation of a system of phones in the courthouse. He claimed that by entering into a contract with the latter the county would save $500.

Geo. C. Ross, who represents the Direct Line Co., urged the board to give the contract to his firm. He thought it was only a matter of justice. The matter was finally disposed of by awarding the contract to the Pacific States Telephone Company.

In the absence of the district attorney Geo. C. Ross was called upon to advise the board as to how it should proceed in the matter of disposing of the Portola school bonds, there having been no responsees to the notice of sale published July 8th.

Mr Ross suggested that the Notice of Sale be re-advertised for one week and this course was pursued and the Clerk authorized to advertise the notice one time.

WEDNESDAY'S MEETING

The board met Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The petitions of the citizens of San Bruno, Crocker Tract, Colma, Hillcrest and Vista Grande asking for lighting districts were referred back to the signer at the suggestion of the District Attorney. He also suggested that all join in one petition to be presented at the next meeting when the necessary steps would be taken calling for an election.

The matter of installing fireproof doors and frames and window casings in the courthouse building was taken up. The offer of the O'Brien Company to make the substitution at a cost of $7900, on which price a rebate of $2500 would be allowed for material and mechanical work was accepted on motion of Francis, seconded by Blackburn.

Superintendent MacKenzie reported that three slop sinks would be needed in the building and that a stairway should be provided leading to the roof and dome. The architect advised that the building be provided with a vacum cleaning apparatus. Referred to the Building Committee.

The Palo Alto Electric Works was awarded a contract to put in the system of conduits for the telephone wires at a cost of $585

A contract was awarded the Peck-Judah Importation Bureau to distribute 6000 booklets recently issued by the Sunset Magazine between San Diego and Seattle for three onths for $75

Blackburn was authorized to employ the surveyor next Saturday to survey and lay out a piece of road at San Gregorio.

The agreement of the O'Brien Construction Company to install fireproof doors, frames, and window casings in the courthouse at a cost of $5,400 was presented and accepted and ordered engrossedd in full on the minutes.

The clerk was directed to notify John Williams, the builder of the Pope street bridge near Menlo Park, to proceed with the work of completing his contract within five days.

Business of City Council.

An ordinance was introduced fixing the charges for water and sewer connections. As provided, the charge for each water connection will be $10; for sewer connections, where made from the main, $10; and where made with a Y at the curb, $2.50. These prices are practically the same as those which have been made in the past.

The Clerk was directed to call for bids for the laying of 400 feet of 4-inch pipe on Roosevelt avenue and 800 feet of 6-inch pipe on Davis street.

Chairman Merrill expressed the opinion that the Trustees should sit as a board of equalization for the purpose of considering the assessment of property in the city. When informed by City Attorney Mansfield that the Council had no authority to review the work of the County Assessor, Mr. Merrill asked that his protest against the acceptance of the assessment be entered in the record, stating that personal investigation had convinced him that there were instances of unequal valuations, citing one case where lots in the same block were given widely different values.

Marshal Christ was granted 10 days' leave of absence.

The clerk was directed to invite the representatives of the Frank tannery to meet with the board at the next meeting and confer in regard to the extension of Chestnut street.

Street Superintendent Dickey stated that a number of property owners desired to make fills for grading sidewalks. It was agreed that when such improvements were voluntary they would be permitted. This would not interfere with the board's order that only concrete sidewalks should be permitted in the future.

The clerk stated that the application of Bart Sheehan for a liquor license had been withdrawn.

Archer Kincaid, representing the estate of Chas. Imporsani, deceased, was given permission to withdraw the liquor bond of the latter.

The attorney was directed to look up the ordinance for the prevention of weeds with a view to clearing off some of the streets and sidewalks.

Residents on Phelps street were granted permission to construct a temporary walk in front of their property.

HEED THE WARNING

Many Redwood City People Have Done So.

When the kidneys are sick they give unmistakeable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days oof suffering may be saved. Sick kidneys expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brick-dust" sediment and painful in passage. Sluggish kidneys cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired languid feelings and frequent rheumatic twinges.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only; they cure sick kidneys, and rid the blood of uric poison. If you suffer from any of the above symptoms you can use no better remedy.

Redwood City people c recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. J. H. Bridgewater, living at 210 Jackson st., Redwood City, Cal., says: "I suffered severely from a pain across the small of my back and it was with me no matter what position I assumed. I was also subject to attacks of dizziness and my general health was in a much run down condition. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at P. A. Ryan's drug store and used them according to directions. They proved to be just the remedy I required and before long I was well and strong again."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
